THE LISTENING TAPESCRIPT

From: <http://www.listenAminute.com/f/furniture.html>

I have a passion for furniture. I love it. I particularly love antique furniture. I love going round old houses and looking at all the beautiful sofas and chests and cabinets from hundreds of years ago. Making furniture used to be a real art. They don't make furniture like they used to. Nowadays a lot of furniture is rubbish. A lot of it you have to make yourself! Actually, I quite like that. I like wandering around IKEA and seeing what they have. You can pay extra to have the guys assemble your furniture for you, but I like doing it myself. I'm studying interior design and would like to start my own furniture workshop one day. I'll mix modern ideas with traditional ones. I'd like to start a trend for green furniture that helps the environment.

- Now return to your original partner and share and talk about what you found out. Change partners often.
- Make mini-presentations to other groups on your findings.

HOMEWORK

1. VOCABULARY EXTENSION: Choose several of the words from the text. Use a dictionary or Google's search field (or another search engine) to build up more associations / collocations of each word.

2. INTERNET INFO: Search the Internet and find more information about furniture. Talk about what you discover with your partner(s) in the next lesson.

3. MAGAZINE ARTICLE: Write a magazine article about furniture. Read what you wrote to your classmates in the next lesson. Give each other feedback on your articles.

4. FURNITURE POSTER Make a poster about furniture. Show it to your classmates in the next lesson. Give each other feedback on your posters.

5. MY FURNITURE LESSON: Make your own English lesson on furniture. Make sure there is a good mix of things to do. Find some good online activities. Teach the class / another group when you have finished.

6. ONLINE SHARING: Use your blog, wiki, Facebook page, MySpace page, Twitter stream, Del-icio-us / StumbleUpon account, or any other social media tool to get opinions on furniture. Share your findings with the class.
